Reasons for allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record does not teach the combination of limitations in the independent claims 7, 17, and 27 especially, "when inserting a row with a primary key which at some point in the past was deleted prior to said load, those columns for which the load does not contain data are set to the values that they had when the row was last deleted."

Vaitzblit (US 2002/0007363) teaches storing data in a database; sequentially performing a plurality of loads to said database – paragraphs 0008-0009; fig. 2, element 50; undoing at least one of said plurality of loads, wherein the undone load is a load performed prior to a most recent load performed to said database; wherein the resulting content of the database reflects the data as if the undone load had not been performed – paragraphs 0008, 0018, 0036. However, Vaitzblit does not teach the limitation listed above.

2. Dependent claims 31, 33-34, 36, 39, 41-42, 44, 47, 49-50, and 52 incorporate the listed limitations by reference and contain limitations that further distinguish over the art of record. For these reasons, claims 31, 33-34, 36, 39, 41-42, 4, 47, 49-50, and 52, are considered allowable over the art of record.
